Then, having separated the witnesses and questioned them apart, their answers were found so contradictory that the people with one voice declared Susanna innocent. 4. The Fiery Furnace.--Nabuchodonosor, being an idolater, set up a statue of gold and ordered all his courtiers and people to bow down in adoration before it. Sidrach, Misach, and Abdenago refused. Daniel was absent at the time or he would also have refused. To punish these noble youths the king ordered a furnace to be prepared heated seven times hotter than usual, into which they were thrown. But though the men who obeyed the command were consumed by the fire, the young Hebrews were untouched by the flames, for an angel of the Lord came down to them and a soft, cool breeze filled the interior of the furnace, so that not even a hair of their heads suffered. When the king heard and saw all this he acknowledged that the Lord was with them, and issued an edict that no one should blaspheme against the God of Israel. 5. The Handwriting on the Wall.--Baltassar, the grandson of the preceding king, was the next king of Babylon. On his accession to the throne he gave a great feast to his nobles; and while they were crazed with wine he sent for the sacred vessels which had been taken from the Temple, that he and his guests might drink out of them. While in 3. Outline the...
