Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from School Literary Societies: Model Constitution, Rules of Parliamentary Procedure, and Principles of Debating Every school that is interested in the work of the University Interscholastic League should have at least one literary or debating society. Good live school boys and girls will indulge in activities of some kind outside of regular class work: wise teachers will try to direct these activities along helpful lines, and the benefits to be derived from literary society work are readily apparent to all. Many a public man in Texas today will testify to the help he received in a literary society in developing a talent for public speaking and debate, and in general culture. And, too, with reference to the public speaking contests of the University Interscholastic League, literary society work is essential. Latent talent needs development and encouragement, and candidates for a declamation contest or for a debating team should by no means be left to a hit-or-miss method of voluntary participation. The Department of Extension of the University of Texas is desirous of giving assistance to those...
