Discoredia

---

By J. C. Michael

Books of the Dead. Paperback. Book Condition: New.

Paperback. 192 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. As the year draws to a close a mysterious stranger makes a proposition to club owner, Warren Charlton. It's a deal involving a brand new drug called Pandemonium. The good news: the drug is free. The bad news: it comes at a heavy price, promising much but delivering far more. Euphoria and ecstasy. Death and depravity. All come together, at Discoredia. J. C. Michael unleashes upon ordinary, unsuspecting characters a fiendish plot that only maestros such as Bentley Little and Michael Slade could rival. Dean Lombardo, author of Space Games Discoredia will take you on a crazy ride to hell and back, if you're ballsy enough to take on this awesome book. Claire Riley, author of Limerence J. C. Michael's brilliant novel, Discoredia, is a literal trip into the abyss echoing with the screams of those classic movies from the 80s where the big bad was bigger than life, unrepentantly evil, and no one was safe. By the time Michael's 200 beat-per-minute pandemonium kicks in it's too late to do anything but keep rolling and pray you make it to the last track. Bracken...
