B-255079 government for the cost of loans that are made and that may subsequently default, in the event that the schools appeals are unsuccessful. As a measure of further protection of the governments interests, the Congress also may wish to consider granting the Secretary the authority to require schools to post a performance bond as a condition of filing an appeal as well as the discretion in determining under which circumstances a bond would be required of schools. We requested comments on a draft of this letter from the Secretary of Agency Comments Education or his designee. On May 19, 1995, we received verbal comments and Our Evaluation from representatives of the Departments Offices of General Counsel and Postsecondary Education. They generally agreed with the results of our findings. They suggested several technical changes, which we incorporated in the letter, as appropriate.
