August 9th and 10th, 1848 All editors will be allowed, and are hereby granted permission to extract from the following Report to any extent which they may desire, provided they will give due credit for the same, and call the attention of their readers, in an express manner through their editorial columns, to the enterprise in which the subscriber is engaged, viz: the introduction into general use of the Phonographic system of writing. All editors who may conclude to accept the above offer, are respectfully requested to read the paragraph below headed to all who wish to write with the rapidity of speech, in which they will find some important facts, on which they can base such a notice as will greatly aid the subscriber and not impoverish or incommode themselves. The subscriber s office and publishing house are at the Phonographic Rooms, 66 South Third st., Philadelphia. Oliver Dyer. To All Who Wish To Write With The Rapidity Of Speech. I would give five hundred dollars if I could write as fast as a public speaker usually utters his words. I would give a Thousand Dollars, in a minute, if I could only report as well as you can. How often have these and similar remarks been addressed to us. Indeed it seems as though the most intense desire is felt by almomst the entire (intelligent) community to acquire that much-coveted art by which the orator s eloquence is caught in its impassioned torrent, and fixed upon paper as an image of his rich and glowing...
