THE CHIEF ENEMIES OF GODLINESS. Having given a brief account of the origin and early history of True Godliness, it may not be amiss, before I come to treat of his Travels and his entertainment in these latter days, to give a description of some of his chief adversaries, that true lovers of Godliness may be aware of them; and those who have a mind to be acquainted with him, and are hindered from receiving him into their houses, * may know the cause and reason of it. One of the chief enemies of this great favorite of heaven, is the Devil; nor is there any one that more perfectly hates him. Besides him there are two more, the Flesh, and the World. But this general description is not sufficient to discover the great danger men are in by certain emissaries and servants of those grand adversaries, whom many are ready to entertain as friends, not suspecting their fatal danger. I shall therefore, That is, into the heart. The author in all the remainder of his work keeps up this figure. H. M. give you an account of a few of them, and tell you their names. 1. Unbelief. 2.
